CWAH is a 501 © (3) non-profit organization. CWAH cannot put a dollar value on this receipt, but it will help you prove that you did indeed donate the property if the IRS later asks. It is not CWAH's job to report the value of your donation to the Internal Revenue Service. Use the Fair Market Value to determine the value of your donations. FMV is the price that donated item (s) would sell for on the open market. The FMV of used clothing, household items furniture, furnishings, appliances, linens, or personal items, etc. are much lower than the price paid when new, because the value has depreciated. You cannot take a deduction for a contribution of an item(s) that is not in new or (used/good) condition or better.
